

Besen Family Foundation Open Grant Round Application Form

The Besen Family Foundation Open Grant Round 2 2021/2022 is now closed. The Besen Family Foundation Open Grant Round 1 2022/2023 will open for applications in the Arts & Culture Program and Jewish Community Grants Program on Monday 8 August 2022. The application portal will be accessible from 8 August 2022.

IMPORTANT: Please read the information below to assist you in completing your application.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN YOUR APPLICATION

Please ensure you have read the The Grants Program section on the website to ensure your project fits the funding criteria and that your organisation is eligible to receive a grant.

Individual artists may be eligible to apply to the Foundation through the Australian Cultural Fund. Please make sure you read the information on applying through the Australian Cultural Fund here before starting your application.

Please ensure you save your application as you go. There is a Save & Finish button at the bottom of every page of the form where you can save your application. It is important to be aware that clicking on the back button on your webpage takes you out of the form and on to the previous webpage. You need to click on the navigation buttons within the form to move through pages of the application.

For queries about your application form please contact the Foundation office at info@besenfoundation.org.au.

USING THE APPLICATION FORM

On every page of the form you will find headings with links directly to each page of the application. Click on these headings to jump to the page you want.

You must complete questions marked with a red asterisk symbol. You will not be able to submit the application if any of these fields are left empty.

Some fields show a word limit below the field. For fields that do not have a word limit we suggest you enter no more than 3 or 4 paragraphs per question.

SAVING YOUR DRAFT APPLICATION

If you want to come back to an incomplete application, press Save & Finish. You should receive an email with a link to the application form. When you log back in you will find a list of any applications you have started. You can then reopen your draft.

SUBMITTING YOUR APPLICATION

There is a Review my Application button at the top of every page. You need to review your application before you can submit it.

Once you have reviewed your application you can submit it by clicking on Submit. You will be prompted to fill in any compulsory questions before you submit your application. After you have submitted your application, you cannot edit or change your application or support materials.

When you have successfully submitted your application you will receive an automatic email with a copy of your submitted application. This email will be sent to the address you used to create an account.

If you do not receive a confirmation email you should assume that your application has NOT been received by the Foundation.

ORGANISATION

If an organisation uses more than one name then a grant application should be made in the name relating to the DGR1 status.

If you are applying to the Foundation through the Australian Cultural Fund the Organisation details should be as specified by the document provided to you by the Australian Cultural Fund. Applicants require approval from the Australian Cultural Fund prior to applying to the Foundation.

ATTACHMENTS AND SUPPORT DOCUMENTS

You may need to upload the following attachments to support your application.

- Applications from organisations in the Arts and Culture area may require
 - Biographies of involved artists/curators/writers where relevant
 - Links to other relevant support material (e.g. urls of artists / your organisation to show recent work of primary applicant and collaborators whose input will significantly shape the work proposed in the application)
 - Latest Annual Report
 - Latest Audited Financial Statement
 - Letters of confirmation from artists/curators/writers. These should be combined into one PDF of no more than 3 pages.
 - Letters of support for the project from other individuals or organisations that you have worked with in the past and from any partners in the project. Please do not provide testimonials. These should be combined into one PDF of no more than 3 pages.

- Applications from organisations in the Jewish Interests area may require
 - Latest Annual Report
 - Latest Audited Financial Statement
 - Letters of support for the project from other individuals or organisations that you have worked with in the past and from any partners in the project. Please do not provide testimonials. These should be combined into one PDF of no more than 3 pages.

Files of up to 25MB each can be uploaded. However we recommend you try to keep files smaller. Larger files can take a long time to upload.

To upload a file you can click on the Browse button and find your file. Once you have found the file and you can see the name listed in the application you need to click on Upload. If you do not click on Upload your file will not be included in the application and you will be unable to submit.

PAYMENT DETAILS AND DECLARATION

It is important that you enter the payment details for your organisation that relate to the DGR1 and Income Tax Exempt entity account. Please make sure that you double check your payment details as these will be used for the electronic transfer of the grant should your application be successful.

Please read the Declaration and Privacy Statement carefully. The Declaration should be approved by the CEO or Head of Organisation.
